

HAWAII LODGING & TOURISM
A S S O C I A T I O N

The following 44 grants given statewide totaled over $360,000, as enabled by Act 86 (2018), championed by Representative Richard Onishi and Senator Glenn Wakai. The measure appropriated up to $1 million dollars from the general revenues of the State of Hawai'i to nonprofit organizations addressing homelessness in tourism-impacted areas throughout the state. That revenue is to be matched dollar-for-dollar by the private sector.

The Maui organizations receiving funds for homelessness matching grants were: Catholic Charities of Hawaii, Maui Division; Family Life Center; Feed My Sheep; Habitat for Humanity; Hale Kau Kau; Ka Hale a Ke Ola Homeless Resource Center; Keiki Cupboard; Maui Food Bank, and The Salvation Army Hawaiian & Pacific Division, Maui Corps

The Kauai nonprofits were the Boys & Girls Club of Hawai'i, Kaua'i Division; Catholic Charities of Hawai'i, Kaua'i Office; Hawai'i Foodbank, Kaua'i Branch; Kaua'i Independent Food Bank; Kaua'i North Shore Food Pantry; 'Ohana Christian Fellowship; and Salvation Army Hawaiian & Pacific Division – Kaua'i Corps.

The Oahu beneficiaries were Corvette Center Ministries; Surfing the Nations; The Salvation Army Hawaiian & Pacific Islands Division, Oahu Corps; Hawaii Foodbank; Aloha Medical Mission; People Attentive to Children (PATCH); Mental Health Kokua; Hale Kipa; Legal Aid Society of Hawaii; Family Promise of Hawaii; Aloha Harvest; United Church of Christ Transition House; River of Life Mission; Young Women's Christian Association of Oahu; Hawaii Youth Services Network; Project Vision Hawaii; United States Veterans Initiative – Hawaii; Friends of the Children's Justice Center of Oahu; Hawaii Arts Alliance; Ho'ola Na Pua, and The Institute for Human Services.

Hawai'i Island recipients were Catholic Charities Hawaii; Habitat for Humanity; Hawai'i County Economic Opportunity Council; Hawai'i Food Basket; Hawai'i Island Home for Recovery; Hope Services Hawaii, and The Salvation Army.
