▲ INspiration To Build New Warehouse

Thomas Sorensen, owner and CEO of Honolulu Design Center and INspiration Interiors, has purchased a 10-acre parcel of land in Campbell Industrial Park for a new distribution center. Honolulu Builders will be constructing a 263,000-square-foot warehouse, and the new project is called Hanua Logistic Center, after the street it's located on. Attending the June 20 groundbreaking ceremony were (from left) kahu Peter Rockford Espiritu; Greg Hackler of First Hawaiian Bank; Dan Jordan of Honolulu Builders; Lloyd Sueda of Sueda and Associates; Thomas Sorensen; Daniel Sorensen, vice president of INspiration Interiors; and Bill Froelich of Colliers International. ANTHONY CONSILIO PHOTO

MidWeek Mystery Shopper WINNER

Donna Lindgren Wins $150 Spree At Foodland Farms

On Wednesday, Donna Lindgren went to Foodland Farms at Ala Moana Center for some groceries.

As she made her purchase at 1:45 p.m., Mid-Week's representative approached Donna with a simple question. She answered correctly and instantly won a $150 Foodland shopping spree.

"I like the local products, local food, the poke bar, hot food bar and section of local crafts," said this week's Mystery Shopper on why she likes shopping at Foodland. "Also, it's convenient."

Donna is originally from Madison, Wisconsin, and moved to Hawaii in 1972. A retired flight attendant, she enjoys walking, reading and spending time with her granddaughter. She also likes to read Mid-Week.

"I like the variety of columnists, such as Bob Jones and Jade Moon," she said. "Also, the Pa'ina pictures and the ads."
